

RAINCOAT WORKERS WIN RAINY DAY STRIKE

Wages, Hours and Holidays Are Readjusted.

Four thousand union raincoat workers in New York City yesterday morning took a look at the drab, lowering skies, and then went on strike.

During the brief strike, however, the union had won from the employers nearly everything it demanded.

New Facts on Old Typewriters

Here we have Mr. Hand-me-down Typewriter and his good friend, Weak-Knee Guarantee. An inseparable pair, these, whose team work in relieving the typing public of its cash and confidence is truly admirable.

Samuel Hopkins Adams

as The Ad-Visor of The Tribune, made an interesting research into the haunts where these queer creatures conduct their phony operations.

This report of their homes and habits is one of twelve articles specially selected from Mr. Adams' writings in The Tribune and now brought together in book form.

Some of the other articles on tricky trade practices are "Private Garages That Take in the Public," "Suits That Don't Fit Their Advertisements" and "Sample Shoes for Simple Souls."

Mighty interesting, all of them, and well worth reading, too. Names and addresses mentioned freely, so you'll know where not to buy.

Better wrap a quarter in the coupon below and get this guide to unsatisfactory shopping, before you forget it. Certainly, your money back if you want it. Just tear the coupon now.

MANITOBA FRAUD EVIDENCE BARRED

Court Rules Government Can Go No Further.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Aug. 28.—Justice Prendergast, presiding at the trial of Sir Rodman Roblin, lately Premier of this province, and two members of his cabinet, charged with conspiracy to defraud the province in the erection of parliament buildings here, ruled today that further evidence regarding defective material used in constructing the buildings cannot be presented by the government.

As a result of the ruling the government will conclude its case this week.

LONE BANDIT GETS $3,000

In Auto, He Holds Up Collector in Detroit Suburbs.

Detroit, Aug. 28.—Search is being conducted tonight for a lone automobile bandit who is said, this afternoon, to have held up and robbed Harold Lebell, a collector for the Standard Oil Company, of approximately $3,000. Lebell was found bound and gagged by a clump of bushes on the Beckner Road, near Dearborn, a suburb of Detroit, and declared he had been dragged there by the bandit, who had driven his machine across the path to a stop.

As a result of the ruling the government will conclude its case this week.
